We are very pleased to announce that Jim Murray will once again be supporting the Victoria Whisky Festival with two of his legendary tastings featuring a wide selection of whiskies from around the world including single malts and blends from Scotland, Ireland, Canada and the United States of America. Jim's tastings are very informative, high energy and amusing. Jim will be launching his 2007 edition of the Whisky bible in which he reviews 3600 whiskies from around the world.
